It was the Lions' annual father and son banquet Tuesday night. Featured magicians at the meeting were Lions Mo Hall, Jack Macnab and Gene McCaffrey. Lions Chester Best and Les Barber are reported to be acting as understudies for magician work at future meetings.

The real magician at the meeting was Ron Roderick, Willowdale. Special musical numbers were given by Lion Alex George and son Johnny with mandolin and piano.

Top plowmen in the U.S. and Canada competed at Carp, Ont., in the international plowing matches last week. It has been a pleasure to work with the members and friends of the church, and to have seen so many of you come in to enjoy the services from time to time.

"From the mayor down we were made to feel that our services were needed, accepted and appreciated. The ministers of the town have treated us warmly. ## Efforts Of Society Of Friends Raise $160,000 For Aid Abroad

For the relief of war-caused suffering abroad, the Canadian Friends Service Committee (Quakers) has received and disbursed $160,000 in the past seven years. It was reported at the two-day 22nd annual meeting of the Committee, held in the Friends' Meeting House at Sparta, Ont.

Widespread malnutrition in India and the Far East, and the plight of refugees in Europe and the Near East, prompted the Quakers to decide to raise another $20,000 in the next year. Fred Haslam, secretary of the Committee, recently back from Europe, described the need in Germany and other countries.

Large quantities of powdered milk have been sent by the Friends to India and Japan, and blankets and clothing to Austria, Western Germany and Lebanon. Powdered eggs went to Austria, Germany, Italy, India and Pakistan. The American Friends Service Committee in Philadelphia sent 11,250 pounds of milk powder, 72,000 pounds of wheat, 18,000 pounds of lentils, 15,000 pounds of powdered eggs, and one ton of multi-purpose food. The Canadian Friends supplemented this with 15,750 pounds of powdered milk.

Believing that one essential for world peace is that living standards of underprivileged peoples must be raised, Canadian Quakers are already co-operating in a technical assistance program in India, the meeting was told. Dr. Edwin Abbott and his wife, Dr. Vivian Abbott, are now serving in India. Both are members of the Toronto Monthly Meeting of Friends. Dr. Edwin Abbott was a member of the Friends' Ambulance Unit in China.

Plans to intensify its peace education program were launched at the Sparta meeting. Christian solutions of problems which tend toward war were discussed. Concern over the effects of the use of alcohol as a beverage was expressed by the delegates. Highway accidents and other tragedies are often directly traceable to liquor drinking, the meeting found. Educational efforts of temperance organizations were commended.

Queen Elizabeth Sends Greeting To Couple On 60th Anniversary

Greetings from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, were received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Apps, Joseph St., Newmarket. The couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. The cable dated at Buckingham Palace, read, "The Queen sends you good wishes on your diamond wedding day."

Mr. and Mrs. Apps were school sweethearts, having been born in neighboring hamlets in Kent, England. Mr. Apps, who is 82, is a native of Harrietsham, and Mrs. Apps, who is two years his junior, was born in Hollingbourne, the town in which they were married on October 15, 1892. One bridesmaid, a sister of Mr. Apps who remained in England is still living.

The couple, with their four children, came to Canada in March, 1914. They settled at Gifford and after two years moved to Newmarket where they have made their home. Mr. and Mrs. Apps have ten grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. All members of the family were here for the celebrations yesterday.

When Mr. and Mrs. Apps celebrated their silver wedding, the first world war was in progress and some members of the family were overseas in the services. On their golden wedding, members of the family were serving in the second world war. But, for the diamond celebration open house was held with everyone able to attend.

"It was just like our wedding day with all the bells ringing," commented Mrs. Apps. "This time it was the door bell and the telephone bringing congratulations. The first time, sixty years ago, all the bells in the village were ringing. Mr. Apps was a ringer. They were married in the morning and for the entire day, the bells rang out throughout Hollingbourne. Mrs. Apps were grey for her diamond wedding day, the same color she had chosen for her bridal gown.

Sixty red roses were presented to the couple by their children who gave them an electric refrigerator. The children planned the celebration for their parents. Friends and neighbors called on Mr. and Mrs. Apps during the day. From Queen's Park came an official scroll from the provincial government and cards, letters, telegrams, flowers and gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Apps.

You can't blame the little pig on the right for complaining. If you received nothing but porridge three times a day you wouldn't be very healthy, and you'd look enviously at a well fed friend who was receiving a balanced meal.

Feeding your livestock chop and nothing but chop is the same as eating porridge three times a day, every day. You balance your diet with meat and vegetables. The "meat and vegetables" for a hog mash comes from concentrates.

It requires so little SHUR-GAIN to make so much difference that you can't afford not to feed it.

The cost of the SHUR-GAIN Concentrates will be recovered along with an extra profit obtained from the feed savings and more rapid growth.

News Of The W.I.

News for this column must be in the office Monday night. Copy must be written as briefly as possible and confined to news and reports. Other than routine reports and announcements will be printed separately.

The Sharon branch held its October meeting at the home of Mrs. Phil Hamilton. There were 17 members and one visitor present. Roll call was given by a gift of jar of jam for York County hospital. An "At Home" instead of the November meeting was discussed and it was decided to have Miss Anna Lewis show slides for the program. The date of this will be published later. We were pleased to have Dr. Margaret Arkinstall present and speak on the subject of Good Health. She stressed the three main essentials for good health, namely, food, rest and exercise. Mrs. J. Greig gave two readings, entitled "Certain People" and "Minding the Gap". Mrs. C. Ward gave an interesting account on current events. by the committee and the meeting was closed. At the close of the meeting several of the members toured Warrendale.

The Elmhurst Beach branch met at Mrs. Peters' home on Wednesday, Oct. 1. Plans were made to take in the Royal Winter Fair via bus from Lockport's corner. Anyone desirous of going please get in touch with Mrs. W. Lunn.

The Health Unit, for pre-school age children, sponsored by Elmhurst Beach Institute, is to hold the clinic in St. Paul's church basement on the fourth Tuesday of each month. October clinic will be from 1.30 to 4 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 21. Parents are urged to bring their children.

Final arrangements were made for the Halloween party at the New Jersey school. Prizes are to be given for the best costumes. Parents and friends who wish may contribute sandwiches and small cakes or cookies, to be taken to the school.

The November meeting will be held at Mrs. Irene Sedore's on the 12th instead of the first Wednesday owing to the convention at the Royal York hotel on the 5th, 6th and 7th.

Snowball branch met at the home of Mrs. Art Kerr on Wednesday, Sept. 24. Twenty-one members were present. Roll call was "Recall a friendly act," which was well answered. Motto, "True friends are like diamonds, precious, but rare," was well given by Mrs. Cain. Mrs. Bill Williams gave current events.

Miss Blake, from Walton W.I., England, was a guest. She spoke briefly of the conditions in England. All members were asked to have their donations of jam, jelly, fruit and pickles ready for the next meeting for York County hospital.

A panel discussion on community activities was given by Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. Reddick and Mrs. Patrick. Mrs. Bob Cain was appointed as delegate to the area convention in the Royal York hotel on Nov. 5, 6 and 7. A get-well card was signed by all the members to Mrs. Bert Smith who is ill in a Toronto hospital. A contest, given by Mrs. Gould, on Canadian authors was won by Mrs. Bob Cain. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Lunch was served by the hostesses.

The Lakeside branch held its opening meeting on Sept. 23 with the ode and Institute collect.

The president, Mrs. A. Pollock, conducted the business. Minutes read by the secretary, Mrs. Mace, were approved and accumulated business was dealt with. Mrs. G. McGennerty tendered a vote of thanks to all who donated and worked for the exhibit at Sutton fair and Keswick sports day. Business closed with the singing of "The Queen."

The topic of the evening was "More ways to healthful living" and we were honored by the visit of two district nurses, Miss Farr and Miss Smyth. We were well informed by Miss Smyth who gave a talk on the wide and varied duties of the public health nurse. She stressed the importance of pre-natal care for mothers, also the immunization of children against smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough. She told us that more children die each year from whooping cough than any other contagious disease, but that it could be avoided if mothers would take advantage of the well baby centres.

All services are free, including injections, for the prevention of these contagious diseases. The use of these serums over the past years has stamped out the terrifying epidemics which our parents experienced.

A social half hour followed refreshments, being served by our hostesses, Mrs. G. McGennerty and Mrs. Alder. A vote of thanks was extended to these ladies by Mrs. Pollock.

Queensville branch met on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 1, at the home of Mrs. Albert Milne. The president, Mrs. Fred Weddel, was in charge. Following the singing of the Ode, the Mary Stewart Collect was repeated. A discussion followed on the motto, "In youth, we learn; in age we understand." The roll call "A song my mother used to sing" was answered by 16 members and five visitors.

Mrs. Albert Milne then acted as convener of the grandmothers' meeting. Various grandmothers, Mrs. Jacob Smith, Mrs. F. Rowe, Mrs. G. Pearson, Mrs. Aylward, Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Milne all contributed to making a very interesting and enjoyable program. Mrs. J. L. Smith conducted a contest. After the singing of the Queen, a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

The Gormley branch will meet this month at the home of Mrs. Herb Moorby on Wednesday evening, Oct. 22. Motto, "New friends are silver, old friends are gold," given by Mrs. Harry Smith. IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

We were interested to see how well the Navy League tag day had been supported in Newmarket. Such success is expected in the coastal areas with the proximity to that "free and easy, bright and breezy" charm which makes "all the nice girls love a sailor". But, to the landlubbers of Ontario, the Navy League must seem a remote project.

The mention of Navy League is an invitation to reminisce about the war years we spent in several of those unnamed "Eastern Canadian seaports". We can almost smell the salty spray. (It's difficult trying to type and perform the Sailor's Hornpipe.)

But before we get carried away, extolling the virtues of the senior service, the navy, let's get back to our topic, the Navy League. Residents on the east coast and no doubt the west, are well aware of the fine work done by the league for our Canadian boys in the merchant marine and the navy.

While we were in Sydney, N. S., we did volunteer work at one of these Navy League hostels. The hostel was operated by the Navy League and staffed by volunteers from the various church, community and women's organizations in the city. Being a member of the Bann Breigh chapter, I.O.D.E., we had our turn on duty at the canteen of the hostel.

With this branch of the service there is a very peculiar problem. The boys come into port as complete strangers. Members of the merchant marine may want lodgings while awaiting for another booking on a ship. But whether members of the merchant navy or the Royal Canadian Navy, these boys want a spot where they can gather. They want to meet girls and such introductions were arranged through these Navy League activities. Dances were sponsored at the Navy League canteen to which only girls who had been approved by the committee were invited.

Costs were kept to a minimum. We remember sessions when we made ham and pickle sandwiches for hours on end. "The boys were only charged to cover the cost of the materials used and there was no skimping by serving paper-thin sandwiches or weak coffee."

The hostels would remain open for twenty-four hour service. At anytime, these young men could drop in and meet comrades for a game of checkers or darts or have a light lunch and arrange for a bed in the hostel for overnight where they were assured of clean, reasonably-priced lodgings.

Similar hostels were in operation in Halifax and St. John, N. B., with volunteer staff. Older women mended clothing or darned socks for these lads of the merchant marine or the navy. Or, in many instances they just visited with them and listened to tales of what grand ples mom used to bake at home, how they missed the wide expanses of the prairie or how they'd like to run into the girl who lived down the street. For the majority of these boys it was their first trip away from home. They welcomed the comforts and hospitality at the Navy League hostels.

These comforts provided by the league were not confined to shore-treats. There were the thousands of ditty bags which were filled for Christmas. The Navy League tried to provide every seaman with such a gift regardless of where his ship would be for the Christmas season. They still continue this work. Many's the sailor-boy spending his first Christmas in tropical climates who has a Canadian Navy League ditty bag to open and examine as tangible reminder of his own country.

Another important phase of the Navy League work is the training of sea cadets. Several local boys who are now serving in the Royal Canadian Navy received their initial training through the sea cadets.

Donations for Navy League work may be forwarded to the local chairman, Mrs. M. B. Seldon, Davis Drive West. They are deductible from income tax.

In Passing: We read last week that sex has now invaded the kitchen. In the article it stated that the reason for employing syrupy-smooth male announcers to dispense household hints to homemakers was that women would resent another woman telling her what to do in her own kitchen.

Conversely, men should be delighted to listen to women radio commentators, but to date we haven't heard of a single male who doesn't make a rush for the dial when Mrs. A. begins to broadcast. Wonder why? Hmm, maybe the sugar content is too high.

This is the season when sports writers are doing the predicting about the past ball season and talking about the present football season. I wish I could write with the same flair, the same free-care-for-naught spirit as the sports writers do.

Tall, gangling, Slim "Beanball" Bliggins, sports-minded personality, well known around the Hub and the Rim and gambling joints of the Riviera, strode leisurely into our office the other day.

"Rack up the balls, put away the cue, the softball season's finished and ah well, there's football and hockey coming up," declared Slim.

"Mind if we make a note of that?" I said. "It would make a good item for our paper Thursday. Let's see, now stop playing billiards, snow is coming and we will be into the hockey season shortly. Yes, I shall make a news item of that."

"But hold," said Slim. "First before writin' off the ball season complete like, some comments. Poor old Brooklyn, Lo, see what happened to them Bums and me a Dodger fan." Slim commented with a flair and care-for-naught attitude, set of face, firm of jaw.

"I see," I said. "Maybe this is going to extend into something more than a news item, a big story. Maybe I could make a feature out of this item. By the way, Bliggins, sports-minded beau vivant of the Hub and Rim, what is a Dodger fan?"

"What is a Dodger fan?" cried Slim. "Oh the ignorance of some of these long hair columnists. It makes my hair turn gray. Have you never listened to a World Series game where the Dodgers are, battling it out with the Batavia, New York,

"Blackshirts", or the South Bend, Indiana, "Vultures"? If you have not, you have not lived. You are a square in the sporting circle."

"No, I have not."

"No? You have not lived then. Nothing was so exciting in that last game as when McNutty connected for a couple of bingles. Smaltz ran out on third and they couldn't find him in the swamplands behind the pickle factory until the game was over."

"A belt of Brimmell's banged a big base break before the gooming bellows of the bystanders behind the base, were bettered by their best. Then the fireworks started. After another couple of bingles, Murphy whiffed nine and fell over to walk five after disastrous boots set up by his mates, beetered by four, countered."

"Whew!" I said.

"Then California thundered off a two run fourth," Slim continued. "It was a picture to see Bradmonster in the third frame. Be bingled two clouts and sent a C.O.D. parcel of slugging smashes and was knocked out in the fifth round just before the bell."

"It was not until the Dodger's star, 'Moonface' Heads, well executed an end run and dropped one in the basket to make it 23 all. Boy was it a sockeroo! After striding into the fourth innings, both teams were pretty well fagged. Another whiff and it was all over. But you should have heard the second bout..."

"That's enough, that's enough," I cried. "I've got my story. I don't need any more." Bliggins is just like sports writers. I can't understand a thing they're talking about.

The Top Six Inches by "Dairy Farmer"

The frost is on the pumpkin, as they say, and the fall is here. It is of some interest to us that it is early or that it is late. It is here anyway.

The colors are rich and the cows' hair is growing longer and the young cattle on the pasture are beginning to look like bears. They are happy and quiet there these days, because the flies aren't after them any longer. We often feel that they are happiest on pasture this time of the year. Some day we will have the courage of our convictions and try and winter a bunch in the bush alongside a haystack.

This also is the time of the year when one sees cars pulled up alongside a ditch and people wearing some red garb, carrying guns under their arms are hunting. They are usually in twos and threes and while our tractor is chugging along at the fall plowing we see them.

We also think that in our part of the country, at least, the only sport they get is walking in the fresh air. Around here anyway, very seldom does a shot disturb the peace and quiet of the afternoon sun.

But this isn't the way it usually is. Some of these fellows, so we hear, frustrated by a whole afternoon walk, will take pot shots at other things. They are careless opening and closing gates and they are breaking down fences. And there is the old cow or sheep that gets peppered by mistake, so we are told.

Have you ever noticed how these fellows climb a fence? We had an old teacher up at Guelph who used to tell us that the way to tell a farm boy from a city boy is to take a bunch out for a walk and then tell them to hop over that fence, there. The farm boys and the hunters are the

CONSERVATION INTEREST

The Upper Holland River Conservation Authority was slow in starting but its rate of progress is sure to increase steadily. The formation of the authority was first suggested three years ago. It took months to find enough interest to hold an organizational meeting but finally five municipalities were represented on the new authority for the Upper Holland watershed. They are Newmarket, Aurora, East Gwillimbury, Whitchurch and King townships.

There has been no great amount of publicity about the authority. It is as well because most of its activities were for some time concerned with organizational work. And with too much fanfare, the average person naturally would have been awaiting, with enthusiasm, for spectacular results. Conservation efforts do not often produce spectacular results unless they are done in an area requiring such dramatic undertakings as the construction of a flood control dam or the changing of the course of a river.

Such programs are not expected to be required in the small Upper Holland River watershed. Tangible results of conservation programs here may never be noticed until a decade, a lifetime or a century has passed. Our children or our grandchildren may be in a better position to assess the accomplishments of conservation practices in our watershed.

Interest in the Upper Holland authority is increasing gradually. More and more farmers see the usefulness in an authority. This year the authority has published a booklet on farm ponds. The booklet describes many ways in which farmers and large property owners can conserve water through the creation of various types of ponds. The booklet has been given a wide circulation throughout the watershed. Starting in this small way, the authority is offering valuable information on sound practical methods of carrying out one conservation practice.

What may bring the authority's greatest support from the people is its interest in potential recreational resources. Ponds both in Newmarket and Aurora, suitable for swimming, would bring the authority wide public support. Fairy Lake in Newmarket and a pond in the south west part of Aurora were the subject of discussion at a banquet given by the authority, following a tour of the watershed last week. It was reported that engineers' surveys, to find ways of developing useful recreational ponds, were being carried out in both towns.

This aspect of conservation will receive the greatest support from the largest number of people. Every person, no matter what his age may be, would derive some benefit or pleasure from the development of useful recreational facilities.

Public demands for swimming facilities in Newmarket have waited many years to be satisfied. Should a pool be taken at the beginning of next summer on the community's needs, a swimming pool would no doubt top the list. The conservation authority sees one of its functions as being an attempt to conserve natural recreation resources. If a natural beauty spot, and in particular, a place for youngsters and adults to swim, were developed at Fairy Lake, Newmarket, or at Aurora, the authority, through its efforts, would also achieve a high place in the estimation of a large portion of the watershed's population. Furthering the cause of conservation in general, it would show the average town dweller what conservation can do for him and as a result, stir a stronger interest in the broader aspects of conservation.

POPULATION GROWTH

Newmarket has enjoyed continued growth since the end of the war. The population figures have shown a steady increase every year and figures on the latest assessment roll reveal that population expansion continues in the present. The town has at least 5,890 persons, an increase of 478 over the period of one year.

Increases in the population the past year may be credited to the movement northward of some city dwellers who have decided to commute, the establishment of new businesses or offices such as the provincial

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

We overheard two Englishmen chatting in the office on Tuesday. They had just discovered that they had come from the same part of England. One was a young man about 30, who has been in Canada four years. The other was older, has been in Canada for 15 years.

"I knew by your 'r's' that you came from Tyneside," said the younger man. It turned out that the younger man knew the exact house where the older one had spent his youth. They talked about their homeland for a half hour.

Later I asked the younger man about his 'r's'. I said, "I know what you mean by your friend's 'r's' but you don't pronounce them the same way."

"That's right," he said. "But you just said you came from the same part of England."

"Of course we do. He's Tyneside," the Englishman said. "He lived on the other side of the river."

He went on to explain that on one side of the river people pronounce 'r's' with a certain twist. On the other side, they don't. It is hard for Canadians to believe that there are such marked differences in dialect. Twenty miles away one would run into an entirely different dialect.

It would seem that an Englishman could almost tell on what street another Englishman had lived.

We could imagine two Englishmen in a fictitious meeting on the street. "Oh say," one would say, "you must have come from Twinkham, north side, west end of Pickston St. 'I can tell by your 'q's', you know."

"No you're wrong," the other might say. "Middle of Pickston Street."

"Oh, of course. Confused me a bit at first."

That, probably is going a bit to the extreme.

Our younger friend mentioned the 50th Division Corps of the British army in which he served during the past war. The 50th was well known for its action from the North African desert to Normandy. Its members earned the name "desert rats".

The by-word of the 50th was T.T.T. The letters stood for "Twixt Tweed and Tees" the same part of England where our two friends lived. The area stretches from the border of Scotland down to Yorkshire.

OCTOBER 17, 1902

While unloading furniture belonging to Mr. Bonathan, which was being stored in town last Tuesday morning, Mr. Stanley Stephens, Niagara street, had the misfortune to break his right arm, which will give him an enforced holiday for a few weeks.

Mr. Albert Rogers, the principal moving figure in the habilitating of Pickering College, was here on Monday to say good-bye to the College staff and the students previous to leaving for a trip to Europe for the benefit of his health. He sailed from New York on Tuesday night, accompanied by his wife and will probably be away from home for two or three months.

Mr. Waldruff, who has been a clerk in Whimster's store ever since it was opened in Newmarket, has accepted a lucrative position in the city.

On account of the excessively wet day on Wednesday, the sale of 31 head of extra good cattle, besides other stock and implements belonging to Mr. B. W. Johnston, was postponed until Saturday, Oct. 15. The farm is on the provincial highway, two miles west of Sutton.

Jos. Smith, harvester from Ottawa, Ont., aged about 27 years, met with an accident on Wednesday of last week which cost him the loss of an arm. While working on the farm of H. W. Cowan, near Amazon, he got his arm caught in a drive belt. He was speedily taken to the local hospital here for treatment, when it was deemed advisable to amputate the major part of the arm.

A number of Newmarket Musons went to Aurora last Friday night when the District Deputy from Toronto paid an official visit to Rising Sun Lodge.

Mrs. Chas. Kirby attended the Golden Wedding of her sister, Mrs. James Baker of Grand Valley, held at her daughter's, Mrs. Louis Clements, Carville, on Monday last.

Mr. T. E. Ramsden of Lonsdale, Alberta, writes: I am losing interest in the East without the Era. Enclosed find subscription for same. I will appreciate it again these long evenings. Grain cutting about finished. Threshing will start in a few days, weather permitting.

Last Sunday afternoon three lads were in Mr. Williamson's garden on Prospect Ave. when one of them picked up an apple and threw it at a tree. Just at the moment it was thrown little Robbie Harland turned his head and the apple struck his spectacles and shattered the glass to pieces and injured his eye. Robbie suffered all Sunday night, but has been improving since, and expects to be around again in a day or two. It was feared that some glass had gone into his eye, but it had only grazed the eyeball. The injury was entirely unintentional, and the boy that threw the apple is very sorry for the suffering it has caused.

The annual shoot of the 12th Regiment was announced to take place at the Garrison Commons on Thanksgiving Day. A number of our redcoats propose going down to capture some of the prizes.

A number of the relatives and friends of Mrs. Fred Webster, Glenville, gathered at her home on Wednesday evening of last week in the form of a surprise party, that day being the occasion of her birthday, and everyone reports having had a very enjoyable time.

Ald. O. B. Sheppard of Toronto was in town on Tuesday last, calling on old friends. He has bought the Lake Shore front from the Warriner side-road north to where cottages are already erected.

Mr. G. W. Boyer of Bracebridge, who represents the northern territory for the International Correspondence School, will be at the office in Newmarket, the second week in each month.

Mr. Geo. Armitage, who was here for the family gathering last week, has gone back to Huntingdon, Indiana.

Mrs. J. Squire Soules moved to Oshawa on Monday. Mr. Soules is a good square business man and an active Sunday school worker, and we are sorry to lose him.

Brick-work on the Sovereign Bank has commenced again and will be rushed to completion.

Mr. W. H. Armitage of Toronto was visiting with Mr. Joseph Purdy of the Mansion House, Sharon, last week.

Something else that "makes the man" (and does even more for him!)

"Clothes make the man", says the old adage. But today more and more men are learning that they can also enhance their standing with certain people by owning life insurance.

Take employers, for instance. To them, a man's ownership of life insurance suggests that he is foresighted, thrifty, realistic. Above all, it reflects willingness to accept responsibility — an attitude that impresses every employer.

In fact, anyone who learns that a man owns life insurance regards him with added respect. They know that it represents one of the most important assets any man can have.

Yet perhaps the most important effect of owning life insurance is on the policyholder himself. It gives him a sense of achievement. For in no other way can he create such a valuable estate for so little in so short a time.

So life insurance can do more than provide financial security for your family and yourself in later years. It also influences people in ways that help win success!

Is it profitable? Well the interest averages 3.44% per year when the bonds are held to maturity. That's ten years, you know...

And owning bonds sure makes a fellow feel good. Come down to The Dominion Bank with me and buy yours. You can either pay cash or have monthly deductions taken from your account. It's really worth it.

We do not need a special day, To bring you to our minds; For the days that we do not think of you.

Are very hard to find. If all the world were ours to give, We'd give it, yes and more; To see the face of Betty dear, Come smiling through the door.

So sadly missed by Mamma and Daddy and family.

BULL-LEACH

Tall standards of white mums and gladioli before the altar were the setting in Richmond Hill United church on Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Beverley Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Leech, to James Harold Bull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bull, Newmarket. Rev. Austin E. Lunau, grandfather of the bride, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Earl Bull, Newmarket, brother of the groom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin, fashioned with buttoned bodice, Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. The skirt was full with drapes, Edwardian in design. Her fingertip veil of illusion tulle fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of red roses and white mum petals.

Her bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Harmon, Gormley, wore a floor-length gown of blue Swiss bengaline with hat to match and carried yellow Gloria roses.

The best man was Mr. Herbert Bull, Toronto, brother of the groom. Mr. Adolmo Melicoi presided at the organ and Miss Margaret Dyer, Newmarket, was soloist. The ushers were Mr. John Leech and Mr. Archie Bull.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy crepe dress with white ottoman cord trim and corsage of red roses. The groom's mother, in navy red-crepe over navy and white printed crepe, wore a corsage of red roses.

Afterwards a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For travelling to Muskoka and northern points, the bride wore a rosy-mauve wool tailored frock with black accessories.

Night Classes Evolve Into Permanent, Organized School

With the sponsorship of night school in Newmarket by the Newmarket-Sutton Area board, the permanency of adult education is guaranteed. There is an opportunity for people to learn a hobby for leisure time or to acquire an additional skill to increase earning power. A minimum registration of 10 is necessary for each class to be established.

Last year, the Era and Express published questionnaires to find out how many people in the community were interested in night school. There was an immediate response.

A series of organizational meetings were called and successful classes were set up with local instructors. There was no official sponsorship but encouragement was given by the Era and Express. It was an informal arrangement with each class being self-organized.

Those interested in a particular subject met together. They arranged for quarters in which to hold their class, found an instructor and agreed upon tuition. The course to be covered was done in weekly meetings. The initial groundwork was laid by Max Newroth, Sharon, and the Era and Express' former editor, John Meyer.

A course in woodworking was given by Rudy Renzius in the Pickering College workshop. Ross Howlett instructed in practical carpentry and house building at the Newmarket high school. A series of classes completed a course of instruction in smoking under Mrs. Edward Mitchell and a beginner's course in dressmaking was given by Mrs. Hilda Davies. Mrs. Mitchell conducted her course in her own home and Mrs. Davies held her dressmaking course in quarters above Senecal's store. Other successful classes were conducted by William Vallance in brick-laying and by Orville Wilson in welding.

Many subjects which had sufficient registration were not started. It was too late in the season to begin them. These included typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, advanced dressmaking and leather work.

Such a set-up as last season's night school classes, although admirable for its independence and initiative, had one major drawback. It lacked permanency. Come another term and a similar campaign is necessary to arouse interest in the undertaking.

With the sponsorship of night school classes by the high school board, the project comes under the department of education. Through such arrangements, recognized courses of study can be followed, using the facilities of the well-equipped household science, manual training and commercial departments of the local high school.

J. W. Lockhart, principal of the high school and registrar of the night school classes, will, in effect, be principal of these newly organized adult education courses in the community. Following the registration, Mr. Lockhart will draw up a time table for night school classes, arrange for qualified instructors and complete all the details necessary for the efficient operation of the scheme.

Only classes in which there is an enrollment of at least 10 will be organized. That minimum is laid down in department regulations. All registrations must be received by Mr. Lockhart not later than Wednesday, Oct. 29. There is no age limit or restriction to residents for these classes.

Men and women throughout the district could arrange for a carload to attend night school classes in the subjects of their own choice. Many business people must complete forms and reports as part of their business. Unable to type, such routine tasks are time-consuming. Young people who were forced to leave school before they had completed their education regret their lack of knowledge. Housewives could assist their husbands in business if they knew basic bookkeeping principles. Homemakers are interested in making their own wearing apparel. The list is inexhaustible. The opportunity is here. Night school will be provided where the demand is made known.

Some folks think that they should not consult a physician until they are badly hurt or very sick. Then they expect to get well — At once. And more, he will consider you are a regular and valued patient. See your Doctor often, and know him well.

The Stan Cook Trophy

What would you say was the most sought after softball trophy in this neck of the woods? Judging from fan interest and attendance figures the Stan Cook trophy, emblematic of Lake Simcoe League supremacy, is "it".

From time to time a number of fans ask information on the coveted silverware and this week we propose to pass on the results of our research on the subject among the "old timers".

When was the Cook Trophy first put up for competition? The year was 1933. Since that time, except for the war years 1941-45 inclusive, from six to ten teams each summer have been trying to put the clutch on it.

Mount Albert have been the big winners. The Mounties have won it six times. They "dood it" in 1936, again in 1938 and with Ken Mitchell rising to pitching prominence rolled up four straight titles starting in 1946 and running through to 1949 inclusive.

Zephyr halted the Mount reign in 1950 on Ron Kester's strong right arm and repeated in 1951 and again in 1952. Keswick have won twice, 1934 and 1939, Sharon twice 1935 and 1937. Willow Beach, in the wake of Cec McNeill's steady hurling ruled as kings in 1940.

Queensville were the other "champs". They won the first year the league operated in 1933 but haven't been able to duplicate the feat since. Queensville's championship winning squad in 1933 was made up of Bill Burkholder, Wilbert Dew, Mickey Watson, Harry Boag, Ray Crouch, Bruce Foote, Charlie Cunningham, Cec Foote and Dawson Fierheller, outfield.

In 1934 it was Keswick with the following players, D. Tillett, Ted Donnell, Royden Connell, L. Connell, L. Draper, A. Durham, Milt Morton, A. Tomlinson, Clyde McInnis, Ethan Morton, Bill Lawton, C. H. Cunningham, coach.

Sharon's 1935 championship crew boasted the following members, Ab Selby, J. Smith, B. Hayward, I. Hillaby, Lon Ganton, B. Stephenson, J. Hitchins, D. Smith, L. Rutledge, S. Cook, S. Roberts. Do you remember?

So as you'll all agree Stan Cook, a baker at Keswick at the time, really started away a string of successful and eventful seasons. Incidentally Stan Cook was honorary president the first year, Howard "Chubby" Morton, Neil Shortreed, Horace Pearson, Bill Burkholder, Byron Aylward and Ray Waite were guiding executives during the early campaigns.

Ross Chapman assumed the chairmanship in the middle forties and Ken Hodgins has guided the league during the past, and possibly most successful season. The six 1933 original teams were Queensville Mount Albert, Keswick, Sharon, Baldwin and Brown Hill. Since that time Zephyr, Hope, Willow Beach, Pine Orchard, Vandonr and Belhaven have joined in the fun while Brown Hill and Baldwin have disappeared.

PEEL-YORK HOCKEY

Officials of the Peel-York Hockey League will make a second attempt tonight, Thursday, Oct. 16, to organize for the coming season reports secretary-treasurer Bill Breedon. The meeting held last week for the same purpose brought only representatives from Schomberg and Nobleton.

King City, Bolton, Kleinburg and Kettleby, who along with Schomberg and Nobleton rounded out the circuit last season, are requested to have representatives present tonight so that an executive can be named and plans set up for the 1952-53 season.

Down The Centre
 By AB. HULSE

The district hockey lid will be pried-off Friday night at Aurora arena, when Andy Closs' Aurora Bears will tangle with Weston Dukes, the junior B kingpins. The Bears will be making their first start, whereas Buck Houle's youngsters have several games under their belt and many more practices. The game should give you a line on the '53 edition of the Bears and if they can hold the Dukes reasonably close it will be a goodly omen.

Good news came last week as Bill Smith of Newmarket, who played with Aurora in 1951 and then went to Lindsay with Bill Mitchell last year, inked his card for secretary Doug Clarke, as did Gran' Edwards who played hockey in his first year in "C" company last season. Edwards, with a fight on all the way along the front wall for a regular post, will be able to hold his own. The worst fault "Stub" had last year was over-anxiousness which drew him out of position far too often.

Don Lewis, the Stouffville boy who played with the Bears part of the '52 season, coming late and retiring following an injury received in the Wilkie match when boarded by Keith Wardell, has indicated his intent to seek a place on the club as has Joe Gasko, the speedy but unpredictable forward.

Bob Hanna, rugged defenceman, and Bob Fallis who is expected to be the rookie of the year, will be dressed but they have not had much chance on the ice as they've been playing boxla with Bradford Celery Kings.

Coach Charlie Rowntree has his hands full doubling in brass now between lacrosse and hockey. As a protection against injuries, the club has secured and paid for in advance a "fully protected" insurance policy. In addition to the usual clauses, this one adds remuneration of wages to the players. Secretary Clarke has proved to be a ten strike to the club, and no Aurora club in recent years has faced the season in a happier position by way of depth of material and financial obligations.

Bobbie Forhan will be the centre of attraction in Friday's contest, the youthful member of the Thoms clan being one of the most popular players to wear an Aurora sweater, and unless we miss our guess it won't be too long before you see Master Robert in higher company. The fact of the matter is that we look for Bobbie to go as far as uncle William Thoms, who incidentally will be back in action at Varsity arena this winter as will be Herbie Cain.

Glad to see "Hack" re-appointed as coach of the Newmarket baseball club. He did a great job. I talked to some Milton folk over the weekend and they opined that Canaltown provided their sternest opposition of the season. Milton lost out in the finals to Dresden, but in one game lacked their ace pitcher and in the other illness struck the team.

Tryouts with the "A" clubs have not meant the levation of many of the players known in these parts. Bob Wallace of Woodbridge, who played last year with Brampton, appears to have made the grade with Guelph Biltmores. Paul McKinnon, son of "Duke" Atkinson of Richmond Hill, and brother of ex-Aurora Jack Atkinson, had a trial with the Biltmores but will likely be in action with Unionville as will Bud Youngberg who was with the Hill midjets last winter and had a whirl with Kitchener Juniors. Youngberg is one of the district's best track and field artist. Kilnack and Bowman of Elmira Juniors have been signed by Kitchener as was Cressman who played with Ilespeler. Rusty White at Fergus has his 1952 junior "D" champs intact and they will most certainly be elevated to "C" company this winter. Ken Linesman and Les. Duff who played with Brampton Regents have moved to junior "A" with St. Mike's Majors.

Awards Dept.: Allan McNair, former Maple-King athlete, was a member of the Streetsville club which eliminated Wallaceburg on the holiday to take the O.L.A. intermediate "B" championship. Gerry Atcheson of Oak Ridges, former Aurora baseballer, hurled Mahers to the Toronto baseball championship. Alfie Moore, who will be remembered from yesteryear as the lad who replaced Chuck Gardiner in the nets for Chicago from a bistro table to defeat Toronto Leafs in an N.H.L. play-off, has taken on the coaching job at Belleville which means the folks at Stouffville will be seeing the diminutive one.

Richmond Hill High, have secured the use of the Loyal True Blue Orphanage grounds for sports activity. A mighty nice gesture of community spirit. The Hill, who are building for next season, have a very promising junior club who look as

Redmen Name Executive

All those fans who helped over the past year to launch baseball successfully in the Hub can rejoice hardball will be back front and center on the sports scene in 1953. Leastwise, that's the sentiments voiced by all present at the Newmarket Redmen's banquet held Friday night at the Legion hall.

In fact those present were so all fired sure that hardball was needed in 1953 they got around to naming an executive for next season. Geo. Hudson, who headed this year's successful return of baseball, was re-named president; Ernie Bennitz was re-elected vice-president; Tom Surgeoner sec-treas. E. A. "Ted" Robinson was returned as manager as was Herb. Cain as coach. Harvey Gibney will be approached about accepting the position of assistant coach. Team members present at Friday's banquet were L. Thoms, K. Wright, K. Thoms, C. Gunn, K. Broughton, W. Elsbey, J. Hugo, A. McKnight, D. Gibson, I. Gibson, W. Grant, J. Cook, executive T. Robinson, G. Hudson, E. Bennitz, G. Haskett, umpires J. Tunney, R. Bell, and chief supporters E. Gibson, L. McKnight and H. Thoms.

Manager Ted Robinson handed out plaudits to the team on their first year showing. President Geo. Hudson indicated hardball was back and back to stay as did Ernie Bennitz in his brief innings in the speech department. Tom Surgeoner gave a financial report and Geo. Haskett gave a brief report on the South Simcoe Baseball League. Wilt Elsbey expressed the players' thanks for the supper. Joe Tunney spoke on behalf of the umpires. Plans for uniforms for next season were also discussed. Evening closed with a showing of movies brought along by Joe Tunney.

good as any junior football club outside the big cities. Monday saw Markham defend their southern Ontario intermediate "B" softball crown against Englehart of the Temiskaming area. Peggy O'Neil made his 50th appearance on the mound and the diminutive hurler was masterful all the way. He's lost but one game in the O.S.A. parade and less than 10 over the season. It marked a triumph for coach Gordon Coverley and his men who, while holding an Ontario crown, still aren't champs of their own area.

Alce. Petich, former Aurora hockeyist who played with Stouffville Clippers last spring, is one of those rara avis, a double-provincial medal winner in the same year. For Markham, an Ontario championship is not new. Lacrosse, lawn bowling and hockey have all seen the southern village on top of the heap. The win was the first in softball not only for Markham but for the entire district, except Agincourt. A big parade of cheering fans met the team Sunday night, and festivities will follow next week.

KETTLEBY IN LOOP
Plans are now complete for a banner Newmarket and District Hockey League season. Kettleby Jets are in. They'll make the fourth team in the Simon-Pure, blood and thunder circuit. Previously, Mt. Albert, last year's crown holders, Vandorf Brutins and Town Regents re-entered. Announcement of the Kettleby entry came after their organization meeting held Tuesday evening. At the meeting Stan Terry was named manager and Bill Hodgson coach of power-laden Kettleby pack.

The Newmarket and District Hockey executive is now complete. Ray Smith is president, Lorne Mainprize (Mount Albert), Geo. Haskett, vice-pres., Bob Brown (Vandorf), sec-treas. Executive members are: Stan Terry (Kettleby), Harry Lavender (Vandorf), Murray Edgar (Mount Albert), Mel Stickwood (Regents). Players and team supporters had better start taking a full helping of wheatears—it won't be long now—season opens Nov. 3.

Minor Hockey

By George Haskett

What do we propose to do about minor hockey this season? Time to think about the subject. Year after year this corner has watched our minor sports organizers... they're a hard working, willing bunch of Joes—poor good money after bad into O.M.H.A. entries, here, at Aurora and the same more or less applies to all North York. What does it get them? Usually a big blob of red ink on the books. Why do they do it? To get competition.

Usually it amounts to one home and one away game for their O.M.H.A. entry fee. Take the case of Imperial Juveniles last season—a strong combined Newmarket-Aurora team, they ran head first into Weston. Weston a Maple Leaf farm team with a population draw of perhaps 75,000. It's history now but we took it on the chin pronto.

Now do we keep on absorbing this shock treatment or do we do something about it? Why not organize a North York Minor Hockey Association along the lines of the successful North York Minor Baseball League. Then there's competition, fan interest should pick up and the cost wouldn't be prohibitive. Certainly there are enough teams in North York with five artificial ice rinks operating, Woodbridge, Stouffville, Nobleton, Aurora and Newmarket, to provide a bantam and midget league.

After the first of the year when natural ice comes in Richmond Hill, Bradford and Sutton could be added. After the league is organized—which shouldn't be too difficult a chore—then if any team wishes to carry on with an O.M.H.A. entry, let them pick up the best from the league and there's little doubt they'd make a good showing in any company. In fact they might bring home a couple of Ontario titles.

How about it men? Do we organize a North York league or not?

Talent Shown As Bears Open Training

When the whoop and holler went up last week that there was a nice sheet of ice in Pep Perryment's ice igloo, manager Andy Closs and coach Charlie Rowntree immediately put their 1952-53 edition of the Aurora Bears to work.

Seventeen players reported for the initial practice Wednesday and on Friday a number of new recruits trotted out for inspection. The Bears, of course, are slated for action in the O. H. A. Junior C ranks again this season and it appears bossman Closs has collected a crew that dispenses more speed and has better balance than the 1951-52 edition.

Age step-up dealt lightly with the Closs-Rowntree class of 1951 as only centerman Keith Collings, defenseman Grant Winters and the club's leading marksman Bob Forhan will not be available for duty. The latter has gone up to Weston Dukes' junior B platoon.

Regulars of last season in evidence to date are netminders Wally Rhodes and Joe Burke, defensemen Andy Closs Jr., Walt Fines and Bob Hanna, plus forwards Pepper Martin, Grant Edwards, Bobbs Cook, Joe Gasko and Stew Wilson.

Newcomers making a bid are Newmarket's Bill Smith with Lindsay last year, Nobby Ash and Jack Woods, a pair of fast breaking, free-scoring front liners and Jim Patton, a defenseman. The latter trio figured prominently in last year's Nobleton O.H.A. junior D entry. Bob Fallis and Tommy Collings, up fronters, head the Bradford trainees and both have made favorable impressions with

HASHMAN AWARD

Lowell Waller

Frank Mounts, a red hot baseball worker and fan, speaking about the return of Intermediate baseball to the Hub at the Redmen's banquet Friday, mentioned the excellent job Lowell Waller had turned in with the Little Giants outfit. It was a well deserved tribute. Lowell Waller, along with his sidekick Eddie Pitt, dug in to get the Little Giants rolling when no one else would tackle the job. As well as handling the midgets during the latter stages of the O.H.A. campaign and North York League playoffs, Lowell took on the added duties of coach of the Optimist bantams. Hardians reached the Ontario finals; the midgets lost to Aurora in North York playoffs.

As long as the Hub is fortunate enough to have young chaps around to pitch in with the small fry, the Hub will do all right and believe me, next season the big diamond, ball, bat and glove artists will be in for a bigger season. That's getting away from the main object of our discourse and that's naming Lowell Waller for the Hashman award and Roxy Theatre pass for his grand job with our minor ball teams.

Haskett's HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Well cover me over with crickets. If the baseball season hasn't finally ended! Despite the promptings of Messrs. Smith, and Perryment, this corner refuses to recognize the puck pushing packs until next week.

Six months of hockey, first thing you know they'll be running it year around. No this corner must clear a little more diamond dust before giving up.

This paragrapher, along with worthy councillor Charlie VanZant has been keeping a weather eye on the diamond situation in the Hub during the past season.

Our one conclusion is that we need a diamond exclusively for hardball. There's been all kinds of yat-yatting going on about hauling the grandstand down to the present softball site. Our solution wasn't so hard to arrive at. Think nothing of it; any couple of strolling characters could have figured it out; take the hardball up to the grandstand.

That move, if it comes off, should raise a few fond memories among Bernard McHale, Billy Epworth, Shorty Turan, Lou Bovair, Charlie Legood, Dutch Forhan and that band of good ball players who performed their baseball miracles on that site. And in those days it was different; anyone caught with a muckball was promptly hauled off to the clink by John Law and the J.P. levied a 30 day sentence.

But back to the subject at hand. There's all kinds of room for the big diamond and considering the attendance figures at the hardball scrimmages this summer, baseballers rate their own field. As one worthy ball fan points out, you just can't play both softball and hardball on the same diamond; hardball requires a mound and a mound spoils a good softball field. Righto.

A hardball diamond is a necessity.

Coach Rowntree.

Al Dawson, ex-Alliston player, now a resident of Aurora, a wingman, and goalie Ron Brown are likely to be retained for a further "look see".

Laurie VanZant and Geo. Galbraith, a pair of husky Newmarket rear-guards up from juvenile ranks, Jack Staley, a winger, and Aurora juveniles Merl Winters and Ron Knowles complete the try-out picture.

Coach Rowntree will likely be putting the axe to work this week to whittle the team down to workable size in preparation for the season opener against Weston Dukes tomorrow evening.

Bears are all set for a big season in the officials' department. Hardwareman Jimmy Wilson is honorary pres.; Dr. C. R. Boulding, pres.; Doug Clark, sec-treas, Charlie Rowntree is at the coaching helm and Andy Closs is manager.

REPAIR ATHLETIC FIELD

Reporting to the Newmarket-Sutton Area board at its October 14 meeting regarding the playing field of the Newmarket High school, William Geer said that the field would be ready for use by the end of the week. The field had been declared unfit for athletics because of its roughness. Mr. Geer said that a heavy grader began work on Tuesday with over half the field levelled. The entire field is to be finished this week.

Expect Ice Sunday

Most popped question among the Hubsters these days is "When do we have ice?" The answer, according to arena manager Stan Smith, is Sunday or Monday of next week. The compressor was started after Tuesday's western show at the arena and actual flooding operations should get underway on Friday.

If plans go through on schedule that will mean ice by Sunday or Monday. As only half an inch of ice or a little better is required for hockey practices, Spitfires are expected to start skating Sunday under the watchful eye of coach Harry Morrison. The figure skating club also has a date to get started on Monday.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be needed to add thickness to the ice, also to paint in the hockey blue lines and if no hitches develop the rink should be open for public skating next Wednesday, Oct. 22.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

At first glance, you get the idea it would have been a great thing for sport in America, a fine thing to cement international friendships. If Emil Zatopek, the champion runner at the Olympic Games, had accepted an invitation from officials of the government of the United States endorsed by President Truman, to visit this continent and show the citizens of democracy the unmatched speed and endurance that swept him to three Olympic crowns.

Now we're sad Zatopek didn't accept. But if it weren't out, he is a mere tool of the Soviet's efforts to boost even with the Olympics as a medium for propaganda.

For the Olympic flame that burned so brightly above Helsinki was barely extinguished before Zatopek, who in front of a microphone making propaganda for the Russians—who had used their ruthless technique to send his fellow-countryman John Mazaryk to dash through a high window and to convert Masaryk's—and Zatopek's—once, great and free Czechoslovakia into a virtual slave state.

In commenting on the Games that had so signally honoured him—Games to foster international co-operation and global sportmanship, Zatopek asserted: "It is the fact that the American interventionist generals in Korea would not even stop fighting for the Olympic Games."

And when he refused to accept the invitation to visit the United States, he sneeringly stated he wouldn't be a party to a "circus".

So we can get along very well, without Zatopek. He has automatically barred himself. It is regrettable Soviet Russia should use international sport for political purposes.

It is doubly shameful that it obtained the help of Emil Zatopek, native of a country that once held its head high among the free nations of that world. And quite as shameful that Zatopek consented to accede to such a shameful role.

In winning the 5,000-meter, 10,000 meter and marathon races at the Olympic Games, this 29-year old Czech Army officer proved himself beyond doubt one of the most magnificent athletes in history.

This remarkable man is the P. T. Barnum of track and field. He puts on a show that would be the envy of a John Barrymore. He runs with his head hitched over his left shoulder, his face wrapped in agony, his fists clenched, elbows bent in a fighting position. His tongue hangs out of his mouth and he appears to be gasping desperately for air.

But all this while his muscular legs are pounding off a steady beat. He staggers and struggles from the waist up, but he is poetry in motion from the hips down.

A great athlete. But a very poor citizen of his own unfortunate country.

Aurora Sportsmen Endorse Park Floodlighting Project: Era And Express Expansion

As reported in our issue of last week, Councillor D. J. Murray brought to the notice of council a project for floodlighting the town park, chiefly for the purpose of promoting baseball. In furtherance of the proposal a meeting of sportsmen took place at the arena on Friday night, October 10, with an attendance numbering 30.

As Mr. Murray explained to council, floodlighting of the town park could serve many purposes besides that of baseball. It could be used by service clubs for special events; by the Horse Show organizers; for spring band concerts; and also for outdoor skating.

The project was enthusiastically welcomed by those who attended the meeting at the arena on Friday night, at which Councillor Murray was elected chairman. A five-man committee was formed to organize and promote it, Mr. Murray being elected committee chairman. Two well-known baseball players are members of the committee, namely, Loring Doolittle and Jack Andrews.

With the wide experience Mr. Doolittle has had in baseball, especially in his capacity as umpire in the United States, he will be able to contribute substantially in making the project the success aimed at by the committee. Mr. Jack Andrews will also bring wide knowledge to the furtherance of the project, which, it is believed, will have general support from local sportsmen and citizens. The committee has resolved on an appeal to the public for financial support for the proposals.

Councillor Murray and his committee feel that park floodlighting would provide excellent advertisement for the town, besides its sports uses. Mr. Gardner Lloyd was appointed secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Deserted Beaches

With the passing of Thanksgiving the last exodus of the holiday-makers has been made until Christmas. This writer had hoped for a "break" of a few days during the summer, or later. Our holiday, however, has consisted of a few motor trips into the countryside, for a couple of hours or so at a stretch, and these we enjoyed. As for the holiday, we do not appear to have suffered at all from its absence.

There was a run to Sutton one afternoon and the return journey along the lake shore road. Those who stick to the highways do not see the beauty of the Canadian countryside, with its lovely roadside homes, its farms and their adjoining barns, and the ever-changing landscape panorama.

When we previously traversed the lake shore road, the holiday-makers were crowding the resorts from Riche's Point all the way to Keswick. On our last visit all of them had disappeared. Along the entire route we did not see more than half a dozen motorists. The beaches were utterly deserted and the majority of the tourist homes closed.

It was a lovely day and the waters of Lake Simcoe shimmered in the sunlight of a late September afternoon. We halted a mile or two from Keswick, and went down to the beach where the gentle ripple of the water was nostalgically reminiscent of the shores of another country, where the sea, in caressing mood, flows in on the golden sand. The beauty of the lake shore road, the homes whose ever-varying character give to it a "local habitation", and the splendor of Lake Simcoe itself can be appreciated only on such a day.

The Countryside

Another afternoon, for three hours or so, we struck out along Wellington street with no particular objective except to see the countryside. This was another lovely sunlit day, with natural scenery at its most entrancing best. Here and there in deep green bush were patches of gorgeous color shied by the sun, and as far as the eye could see was the undulating countryside.

Presently we came upon the delightful village of Portageville, with its long rambling street and many attractive homes. We were told that the Portageville community is characterized by an extreme friendliness, with adherents of varying religious denominations getting together to worship in the one church it possesses. "There's a wonderful community spirit in Portageville," a friend assured us.

Our unscheduled itinerary brought us on to Schomberg, founded, we were informed, by a German Count of that name, who, with his family, fled his native land more than a century ago. Then we "discovered" Lloydminster, named after its first postmaster, Mr. Lloyd, whose Christian name, we believe, was Thomas.

We were not too sure of our geographical situation at a later stage on our return journey, among a number of narrow, diverting roadways. So much so that in one instance we took a wrong turning which presently brought us to the "end of the road," and to a farmhouse, whose adjoining stock of pigs and poultry were apparently surprised at an invasion from the outside world.

Incidentally, we had seen masses of turkeys in this countryside, all of them happily unaware of the approach of Thanksgiving and Christmas, and still less aware of the part that many of them were fated to play in these feasting carnivals.

Newspaper Progress

Before our figures are altered on the top right hand corner of the front page of the Era and Express, our advertisers will be interested in the following facts.

When we began our association with the Era and Express in April, 1951, its circulation stood high. In the 18 months that have passed there has been an increase of no less than 600 copies weekly. We are now approaching a weekly circulation in Aurora alone of nearly 700 copies, a recent weekly circulation being 683.

A comparison with Newmarket and Aurora gives the following facts. There are 1,700 homes in Newmarket and the circulation of the Era and Express in Newmarket is, on a recent average, 1722. There are 840 homes in Aurora, giving the figure of 2,540 combined homes in Aurora and Newmarket, with a circulation coverage by the Era and Express of 2,405.

Advertising Manager

Mr. Ronald Blaxley has been appointed advertising manager for the Era and Express and Aurora News Page. He resides at Musselman's Lake, where he owns land and summer cottages. He is a married man and has two children.

Mr. Blaxley is an Englishman who came to Canada two years ago. He served in the last war in the R.A.F. He received his training in Canada, liked the country and its people, and decided to make his future home here.

He is experienced in advertising business in England and in Canada. Part of his time will be devoted to Aurora, where our job printing and advertising has greatly increased, in response to reasonable costs and the wide territory covered by the Era and Express.

The Era and Express has mailing lists and trading facilities extending to Sutton in the north, Mount Albert in the east, Schomberg in the west, and King in the south. As is well known, it is North York's largest weekly newspaper and it reaches an average of from 18,000 to 20,000 readers each week.

Such facts provide a guarantee of solid service to advertisers. Two more points of interest to readers and advertisers alike: All circulation figures are audited twice in each year by the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent and international organization with headquarters in Chicago; and besides this guarantee of reputation, the Era and Express is a member of the Class A Weeklies, which means its inclusion for preference for the best Canadian national advertising.

Rotary Drive

Although at this writing no final statement has been issued on the results of the Rotary drive for funds for welfare work, organized by chairman Charles Delahay and his committee, we understand that it has proved a great success.

Approximate figures are that the campaign will show not less than $500, and may be as high as $600, net results. Whichever figure may prove to be correct, such a result will reflect great credit on the organizers of a campaign which was carried through with great enthusiasm and combined effort.

"PLAYING POLITICS?"

It was with considerable reluctance and regret that we drew attention last week to what was hardly less than a rebuff handed out to the mayor of the town, Dr. Crawford Rose, on the occasion of the official opening of the new Aurora District high school. The omission of his name from the program, and the further omission of inviting him to say a few words while he was present on the platform, have created much adverse comment.

Such omissions were not only in extremely bad taste insofar as they concerned Mayor Rose personally; they were also in extremely bad taste insofar as the citizens of Aurora and the townships of King and Whitechurch are concerned. A few words from the mayor of Aurora, from whose municipality the $600,000 debenture loan required for the new building was originated, would have given a prestige to the proceedings that was denied them.

It might be as well to remind those who were responsible for the arrangement of the printed programs of the title and office of a mayor of the town, thus defined by encyclopaedia: "The mayor is chief personage in a town where he presides over town council and borough magistrates and enjoys precedence over all persons except royal family or official representative." The office of mayor dates from Norman times.

Dr. Crawford Rose was elected mayor of Aurora by a majority of the votes of the people. He has carried out his official duties most successfully. He has restored a dignity to that office which it had lost. In doing so he has not "played politics". He has acted for all sections of the people. We hope that those who kept his name out of the program, and silenced his voice on the platform, were not themselves "playing politics". Some people think they were!

NOTHING DOING!

The Arena board. What a board! It just "don't do nuthin'". The seats may be falling apart. But the board maintains its stoical composure. Reports are presented that show the need for prompt action in the interests of public safety. Members of council urge immediate attention to pressing needs. But there is no moving the board. It refuses to budge from its time-worn rut.

The same story of poker-face immobility was revealed at the last meeting of council. Mayor Rose stated that "not a single day's work had been done on the arena to put it in shape." Councillors Corbett and Murray had drawn attention to urgent needs as far back as the month of April. Later the Perryman report, Mayor Rose's report, and this newspaper's report were made public. But the board hasn't stirred.

The point was reached at the last council meeting when Councillor Jones affirmed his belief that certain portions of the seating were not safe. Councillor King suggested that a letter be sent to the chairman of the board. Finally council approved a resolution that the arena remain closed to the public until such time as steps had been taken to ensure public safety. That is how matters stood on October 6. Ice should have been laid in by October 1.

All the criticisms that have been levelled at the indifferent board have been justified in every particular. What will the board proceed to do now? Will there be any action? Will it seek a new vote of confidence? Or will it fade out through sheer inertia?

SWIMMING POOL

The latest contractor's estimate for a swimming pool and equipment for Aurora is $50,000. It is argued that the cost, or the bulk of the cost, can be covered by the collections from a community drive. Those who think that such a feat can be accomplished are, we believe, mesmerized by an excess of self-confidence.

If the plan is pursued the money will be raised, we suggest, only through another debenture loan. In other words, more taxes. Some months ago a wading pool project was discussed at the Recreation Commission by a delegation from the finance committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, headed by Mr. Larry Rubin. The cost of this venture was estimated at around $7,000.

We mention this because Mr. Rubin at that time made the salutary remark that the people of Aurora were getting fed up with appeals for money for this and that project. Mr. Rubin was of the opinion that because of the repeated appeals for money from the community during the past few years, only a small amount of the approximate sum of $7,000 could be raised by public subscription. His arguments were founded on practical good sense.

That being so, what likelihood is there of raising the bulk of so huge a sum as $50,000 by public subscription? And what likelihood is there of the town council agreeing to a further debenture loan for what is essentially a luxury project, with so many other debenture loans recently floated and others in the offing, for essential purposes?

It is obvious that a swimming pool project, at such a cost, needs long and searching consideration before it is launched. That much money would not be easy to come by.

COUNCIL SIDELIGHTS

Full Re-Assessment Needed Assessor Agrees That Many Industries Under-Assessed

Although there was some contentious business on the agenda at the last meeting of council, there were no heated arguments or anything like that. Even the Arena question did not provoke the show-down feelings that were evidenced some months ago, probably because council has reached the point where nothing now is expected of the board.

Among the correspondence, council was much impressed by a letter received from Mrs. Dorothy Tyrrell, of 52 Fleury St., concerning the safety of public school children, a dramatic touch being given to the communication by a recital of what had happened to Mrs. Tyrrell's own child. In many ways it was a model letter, reflecting much credit on its author. Mayor Rose took charge of it for submission to the police committee.

Other outstanding letters were those received from the assessor, Mr. George Wilkinson, and from the North York Humane society.

Correspondence Problems.

It should not be overlooked that correspondence received often in itself presents problems for members of council, apart from the general business concerned with the municipality. Sometimes correspondence will take up as much as an hour of council time. It is not always possible to fall in with the wishes of correspondents; but where there are complaints these receive every consideration.

It should, however, be noted that among the other work of council, correspondence is an important feature of it, added to which are the delegations. These responsibilities are all part of council work, and while criticisms are good in their place when the facts appear to justify them, full credit should also be given to members for the carrying out of duties that are often more real than apparent.

Assessor's Statement

As indicated in his statement to council, the assessor's figures are over $100,000 down below those of Mr. Good's for the year 1951. In explanation of this substantially lowered assessment figure, Mr. George Wilkinson had this to say to council: "In the light of the decisions of the County Judge in 1951, it does not seem that any success would come of substantial alterations to industrial assessments in the town, until the whole town has been completely re-assessed. Since these industries which appealed to the Judge received considerable reductions, those industries which did not appeal have been arranged on the same basis as that used by the Judge and have now received similar reductions."

Mr. Wilkinson added this further comment: "I am of the opinion that many of the industries are under-assessed, but the results of the 1951 appeals apparently preclude any alterations until the town has been re-assessed."

The assessor's statement is illuminating and provocative of the fuller comment we propose to give it in a later issue. So much we will say, however, that Mr. Wilkinson's statement fully verifies what is already fully known, namely, that many industries are "under-assessed," and that there is no more urgent problem in Aurora at the present time than that of equalized assessments.

Humane Society

Representatives of the North York Humane society expressed their willingness to appear before council in connection with the dog control problem, which has aroused much adverse comment not only in council but on the part of citizens.

Members of council were, however, insistent that explanations should come not entirely from headquarters at Newmarket, but from the local representatives who, as it was stated, "sold the idea to council."

Arena Debate

The outstanding feature of the arena debate was the justification of those who were formerly rebuked for their criticisms, and now have been fully proven right in what they said concerning the lack of action on the part of the old Arena board. Those who were subjected to adverse comment were Mayor Rose and Councillors Corbett and Murray.

They took a strong line on the "deplorable" state of the arena, and called for action. Months have passed and no action has taken place to improve or repair the arena since the close of the last hockey season. Councillor Jones described certain seating areas as being unsafe and requested that the public should not be permitted to make use of the arena until safety was ensured, a motion to that effect being carried.

Deputy-Reeve Murray again attempted to lay at least half of the blame on council itself, but Mr. Jones would not accept it was on the Arena board this, stating that the responsibility was appointed to look after arena affairs. We have written so much along the same lines that there is no need for repetition. The facts speak for themselves.

OPPOSE ZONING BY-LAW

Business Men Oppose Bylaw Rights Of Property Owners Should Not Be Surrendered

Recent newspaper reports have shown strong opposition on the part of business men in the city of Toronto to the application of a zoning by-law. They claim that its effect will be destructive to business, with the secretary of the Downtown-Businessmen's association declaring that he "objected to the whole setup and the agony a property owner has to go through, waiting to see what will become of his property under the by-law."

A similar state of "agonized" expectancy could arise in Aurora on the part of property owners if the zoning by-law which has been prepared for submission to council were to be passed into law. The Aurora planning board is pressing for a decision from council at the earliest possible date.

Actually, there is no need for the town council to abrogate its authority, as a popularly elected body, by handing its powers of control of building and zoning to a body that has no elected claim to represent the property owners and citizens of Aurora.

The Municipal Act confers on municipal councils the authority to regulate the use of land and buildings, location of buildings on the land and, in effect, the minimum area of land which may be held in single ownership.

John E. Struthers

Last week we were writing of the departing managing editor of the Era and Express; this week we are writing some impressions of his successor. In the case of the former, we had eight years of accomplishment on which to comment; in the present instance editorial accomplishments are still to come.

That does not mean that Mr.

John E. Struthers is a newspaper greenhorn. Far from it.

For the past five years he has served in the capacity of news editor for the Era and Express.

Such an experience has many angles, one of them being a training ground for the position that Mr. Struthers now occupies.

It is not difficult to gather news. The real problem is: To select news that is of interest and value to newspaper readers.

Such work of selection demands the exercise of sound common sense and good judgment. It involves, too, a legal appreciation of news in relation to its publication values and possible consequences. In the absence of these editorial essentials a newspaper can be an extremely dangerous instrument.

J. E. Sullivan

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis, Aurora attended the funeral at Peterborough on Tuesday, Oct. 7, of Mrs. Davis' uncle, Mr. J. E. Sullivan.

Mr. Sullivan, who was credit manager for the Quaker Oats company for over 25 years, played an important part for many years in the public life of the city of Peterborough, as alderman and as a member of the education and other boards.

He was a past national president of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association; president of the Boy Scout association; and a member of the Dominion Council of Boy Scouts. He was a man highly regarded in the city of Peterborough.

expanded; and editorial opinions will be impartial and independent, as hitherto. These are the purposes to which the new managing editor will apply himself.

One important change is proposed for the earliest attention, namely, that of speedier publication of the newspaper and a more rapid distribution of copies to news-stands and readers. The appointment of a new advertising manager will provide an accelerated service for advertisers.

Personal
John Struthers is well-known in Newmarket, not only as a newspaperman but in cultural and social activities. A member of the Newmarket Dramatic club, he has taken part in plays performed at Hart House, and in the Central Ontario Drama Festival.

Future Policy
As we mentioned last week, and as all its many thousands of readers know, the Era and Express flourishes on a great tradition of public usefulness. It has been more than a mere purveyor of weekly news; it has been a mirror of opinion. The first function of a newspaper is to provide news. The better its news service, the more eagerly will it be sought by its readers and its advertisers.

Good advertising is the most desired asset, next to good news, of a newspaper. You must first have readers before you can secure advertisers; both are necessary to each other. Good advertising is appreciated by readers, who are anxious to know what merchandise their stores have to offer them. The Era and Express has attracted to its pages outstanding advertisers. In the approximate 800 weekly newspapers circulating in Canada, the Era and Express is one of less than 70 members of the Class A Weeklies. This distinction enables it to have a substantial amount of the best national advertising.

In all these important directions the future policy of the Era and Express will be largely a continuation of what has gone before. The best possible news service will be provided; advertising will be encouraged and any sale or enter into an agreement of sale and purchase or enter into any agreement that has the effect of granting the use of or right in the land directly or by entitlement to renewal for a period of 21 years or more."

With certain reservations that do not generally affect small property owners, the above quotation, from section 23 of the Planning Act, firmly illustrates the situation in which property owners would be placed. And as the Planning Act states, "Every person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty of not more than $500, recoverable under the Summary Convictions Act."

It has been repeatedly shown during the past two years that the property owners and citizens of Aurora do not, as a majority, favor the imposition of the zoning by-law. Clearly, then, the town council would be giving effect to the wishes of the majority of property owners and citizens by voting down the objectionable zoning by-law.

Kingcrafts Smokers

A combined meeting of King and Laskay smoking groups of Kingcrafts was held at the home of Mrs. George Harvey, King City, on Oct. 8. It was decided to work as one group on every second Thursday evening in the village. Mrs. Whatley Finch will continue as smoking convener, assisted by Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Marshall McMurchy and Mrs. John Parsons will act as telephone conveners.

Mrs. A. J. McLatchy, Richmond Hill, an authority on sewing, has consented to give instruction on the assembling of dresses after the smoking is completed. The smokers will meet at her home on Thursday, Oct. 23, 134 Yonge St., at the Hill, with future meetings to be arranged.

Every new member of the smoking group will be teamed up with an experienced worker. Presbyterial President Speaks
At King City United church last Thursday the spirit of thanksgiving predominated. In worship, songs of praise and through the theme of the speaker, Mrs. G. E. Howe, Toronto, president of Toronto North Woman's Missionary Presbyterial, one felt that the Christian woman's responsibility is a coveted possession. Nearly 100 attended.

Vocal solos contributed to the afternoon's program were given by Miss Helen Hunter, Laskay, accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Bryson, and Mrs. Elliott McClure, Temperanceville, accompanied by Mrs. H. Grimshaw. Lunch was served. The thankoffering amounted to $48.60.
Dr. W. G. Grant, M.O.H.
King township council has appointed Dr. William G. Grant, King City, medical health officer for the west part of the township, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Dr. A. F. Kay, Schomberg, this year. The territory comprises the area west from the sixth concession line, which has been under Dr. J. L. Urquhart, Aurora, M.O.H. of the east division to Yonge St., since Dr. Kay's death. For many years Dr. M. K. Dillane, Schomberg, was in charge of the west side of the municipality. On his resignation Dr. Kay had taken over.

Religious Teaching
Special religious teaching is being given to pupils of Eversley, Kinghorn, Strange and Linton schools by Rev. David Wotherspoon, Presbyterian minister. Half periods are conducted once a week in each school. At present the minister is finding out what course of instruction would be suitable to the grade classes as a whole. He will carry on throughout the school term and is receiving wholehearted co-operation from the teachers.

Fashion Show
Little children, medium sized children, teen-agers and adults will be in Newmarket on Monday and Tuesday next week to have clothes selected to size, suitability and personality, in preparation for the fashion parade, sponsored by King City W. I. in McDonald and Wells' hall on Wednesday evening, Oct. 22. They will be trained how to model the clothes styled for fall and winter wear. New styles will be shown by Bert Morrison's Clothing Store, Jack and Jill Shop for the juniors, and Specialty Shop; personal make-up by Embassy Beauty Salon (the Tobey twins), stage lighting and acoustics by Budd Studios, household draperies by Seneca's. There will be a draw for a lady's blouse at the show and the W. I. will sell candy. There will be a fashion commentator.

Miss Lois McBride, who is taking a diploma course at McDonald Hall, Guelph, spent Thanksgiving weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride, at their "Lawn View" home. Lois is enjoying her work.

Miss Grace White, Toronto, visited her sister, Mrs. Harry McBride, on the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Scott went to Port Huron for Thanksgiving weekend with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Vining. Mr. Douglas Scott, their son, motored Miss Margaret Chambers of Guelph to join the gathering.

Local Fair Winners

Kinghorn school entered a display of work at Schomberg Fall Fair winning several prizes. In the art section, Don Riddell placed second for a scene depicting A Home in a New Country; Francis McNaughton won third prize for his painting on Pioneer in York County, grade 8; Kay Campbell, fourth, Clearing the Wilderness and Edward McNaughton, New Brunswick Lumber Camp, both in grade 7. Bonnie Firth placed first and her twin brother, Freddie Firth, third in grade 2 printing, entitled My Garden Story. Miss Evelyn Courtney, the teacher, placed first for a finely woven baby's carriage cover.

Prize Cakes
Miss Dorothy Priestly, New Scotland, was a winner in the domestic science, women's division, at the fair. ## CYCLING QUINTS VISIT KING FARM

A group of young Toronto girls, who call themselves the "Cycling Quints", paid a visit to "Kinkyle" Farm, 6th line, on Thanksgiving Day, cycling from the city for a thrilling outing in the country. The young ladies were Pat Barron and Margaret Brewin, Oakwood collegiate, Rosalie Biggar, Wendy Lockhart and Susan Stanley, students at Branksome Hall.

The five assembled at Avenue Rd. and St. Clair at 8:30 in the morning and dressed in cycling habit and equipped with box lunches, they set off for King, arriving two hours late at 10:30. At Armstrong's hotel, they stopped for pop and a rest. The remaining four miles of the 23-mile trip took a hour. "There were some dreadful hills from King City to Kinkyle Farm and the gravel road was heavy," the girls declared.

After partaking of their lunch at the farm, the group spotted interesting ways to pass the afternoon. They bathed their feet in the lake under the warm October sun, saw the most beautiful ducks swimming in the water, hiked to the bush and accumulated plenty of burrs on their outfits.

They boarded the evening train at dark for Toronto. J. K. Crawford, owner of Kinkyle is no stranger to the girls. He is Margaret Bevin's uncle and Rosalie's first cousin.

Schomberg's 101st. Annual Fair Said Best Event In Years

Schomberg's 101st agricultural fair, held on Saturday, Oct. 11, was so successful that old-timers say it was the best horse show in 50 years. Don McCutcheon, the president, was very proud of the response of entrants and patrons, and the fact that no incident marred the day.

More than 1,800 people crowded the grounds and 202 of Ontario's best horses filled the arenas, with scarcely a foot of extra space for vans and trucks that brought in the horses. Seventy-five head of cattle, swine, sheep, fowl, fruits and vegetables, to say nothing of the displays of machinery, cars, refrigerators and stoves, were exhibited. More than 20 concession booths, the children's merry-go-round, swing carriages, small riding ponies and the Anglican W. A. booth selling sandwiches, homemade pie, hot dogs and coffee, provided a real country fair atmosphere.

Reeve Elton Armstrong officially opened the fair, after a parade of costumed children from six schools, led by Markham Girls' Pipe Band. Judged for their costumes and marching, Nobleton's 59 scholars were awarded the silver trophy, presented by Bob Moody, executive official. Prize money went to

You'll be amazed at the LOW price of BUICK

TODAY'S market conditions are the kind in which Buick really shines.

Do you know why?

Buick prices start down within easy reach of the folks who, in the past, have been in the habit of buying lower-priced cars.

Fact is—a big chunk of Buick sales now comes from the folks who trade in one of these lower-priced cars.

For very few extra dollars, they're getting a lot more automobile.

They're getting more power—and the thrill that goes with it.

They're getting "big-car" comfort. They're getting a ride that cost a million dollars and more to develop.

They like the room, the fabrics, the extra appointments they find in the smart-stepping beauty pictured here. And they like Dynaflow Drive.*

They like the way it handles. They like the way it's engineered. They like the satisfaction they get out of touching off the power of its Fireball 8 Engine—and they like the miles they get from a gallon of fuel.

So Buick sales are booming. Not just the CUSTOM—but also the SUPER and ROADMASTER. Folks find that each one is the buy in its field.

When we tell you that business is great, we can back up that statement with figures. More people are buying Buicks than any other car at their price or above.

Why don't you come in and see for yourself what's behind this popularity?

If you can afford a new car, you can be the proud owner of a Buick.
